The History of July 4th

Independence Day in the U.S., is an annual holiday commemorating the formal adoption by the Continental Congress of the Declaration of Independence on July 4, 1776, in Philadelphia. Although the signing of the Declaration was not completed until August, the Fourth of July holiday has been accepted as the official anniversary of U.S. independence and is celebrated in all states and territories of the U.S.

The holiday was first observed in Philadelphia on July 8, 1776, at which time the Declaration of Independence was read aloud, city bells rang, and bands played. It was not declared a legal holiday, however, until 1941. The Fourth is traditionally celebrated publicly with parades and pageants, patriotic speeches, and organized firing of guns and cannons and displays of fireworks; early in the 20th century public concern for a "safe and sane" holiday resulted in restrictions on general use of fireworks. Family picnics and outings are a feature of private Fourth of July celebrations

Every member will be given a tally sheet where he/she will pick the best image in each of the three categories. Outside judges will be used to pick winners...compare your pick with theirs!

Pledge of Allegiance

The Pledge of Allegiance to the United States flag is an oath of loyalty to the nation of the United States of America. It is often recited at public events. Congressional sessions open with a recitation of the Pledge. The current Pledge of Allegiance reads:

"I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

According to the United States Flag Code the pledge should be recited by standing at attention facing the flag with the right hand over the heart. When not in uniform, people should remove any non-religious headdress with their right hand and hold it at the left shoulder, with the right hand being over the heart. People in uniform should remain silent, face the flag, and render the military salute.

TREASURE HUNT RULES AND INSTRUCTIONS

2009 Treasure Hunt Categories

1. Green - The human eye can detect more different shades of green than any other color. What does green mean to you?
2. Cats - In keeping with the pet theme started last year, cats have their own personality, can you capture your cat's personality on film?
3. Leading lines - A common compositional theme, use them to your advantage to win this category.
4. Fruit Still-life - Going back to the great Dutch masters (at least) fruit have been the subject of art for centuries. This is your chance to take a stab at this classic topic.
5. Time - How do you show the passage of time in a photograph? To win this category, that's what you must do.
6. Triangles, real or imagined - Real triangles of any shape and size accepted; extra credit for composing a triangle without connecting lines (keep the eye moving within the photograph among three points).

Participation this year is $15 to cover the additional cost of film and processing for the 36-exposure rolls. Shoot six frames of the six subjects above and log what subject category each frame belongs to.

Film is to be returned to the Treasure Hunt chair, Dennis Burian, no later than the August 24 meeting. Due to the shortness of time to get film developed and slides judged, no late entries can be accepted.

Why Don't You Go To???

July 4th celebration in downtown OKC. With free live concerts, giveaways, children's activities and of course the fireworks extravaganza, it's the metro's main place to be for Independence Day.

Date and Times: Red, White & Boom begins as the OKC Philharmonic presents Patriotic Pops in the Coca-Cola Events Center parking lot in Bricktown on July 3rd (See below for schedule). Joel Levine will conduct the concert and singer Mike Eldred will perform. Stay tuned for more 2009 music information. There are fireworks on both the 3rd and 4th.

Location: With the I-40 construction, activities have been shifted to Bricktown this year, on the streets and at the Coca-Cola Bricktown Events Center.

Dear Metro Camera Club Members:

I need your help with my OpenOffice.org program. If you have working knowledge of the OpenOffice.org program, please contact me.

Thanks,
